

Your house is on the line.

So call ours.

1-877-622-4866

If you are struggling with your mortgage payment and don't know what to do, call Iowa Mortgage Help. IMH is a joint effort between the Attorney General's Office and the Iowa Finance Authority that offers Iowans free confidential help from trained counselors. Don't wait. This free call may save your home. Call today. 1-877-622-4866.

IOWA
MORTGAGE
HELP.COM

What can I expect when I call Iowa Mortgage Help?

You will reach a trained, respectful counselor who will assess your individual situation and help you determine the course of action that is best for you. All services provided through the hotline are free and confidential.

- The counselor will refer you to a local counseling agency that will help you with issues such as budgeting and personal finances.
- You may also be referred to Iowa Mediation Services, which provides more comprehensive services. They can work with you and your lender or loan servicer to obtain a loan modification or other long-term solution to your situation.

The sooner you call, the better your chance of success. Don't wait! This free call may save your home. 1-877-622-4866.

IOWA
MORTGAGE
HELP.COM